Obituary.

Margret Fleisher, wife of Jacob Seybert, of Culm, Cass county, Neb., who was born in Highland county, Va., Jan. 1st 1827, and died March 28th 1895, aged sixty eight years, two months and sixteen days.

The deceased was married to Jacob Seybert in the year 1851, in Virginia, where they resided for about seventeen years. In 1868 they came to Neb., and settled on a farm near Culm, not far from Plattsmouth, where they have lived ever since.

To them were born seven children five of whom live to mourn the death of a loving and a devoted mother. The children living are Mrs. Sarah E. Page, Camden, Susie, Andrew and William all of whom reside in this county. The deceased experienced religion over forty years ago, and became a member of the M. E. Church. During her last sickness she knew that the end was drawing near and exclaimed, "I have nothing to fear, there is no dark river to cross."

The funeral services took place at her home, conducted by Rev. P. Vanfleet, who preached an appropriate sermon from the text "O death where is thy sting; O grave where is thy victory."

A great concourse of friends and neighbors followed her remains to the Eight Mile Grove cemetery, where her body sleeps until the general awakening.
W. H. SEYBERT.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

I will be at Meadow Dale from April 22nd to April 25th, one week, prepared to do all kinds of Watch and Clock repairing, and I will put prices down exceedingly low as this is my first visit there. All people will save money by having me do their work, as my prices are low and the work gives universal satisfaction. Have repaired 152 watches since Jan. 1st '95 all of which have given satisfaction. Do not pass by without giving me a call.

Mr. Nottingham, Mr. Beard, Miss Birta Beard and Miss Nottingham are visiting at Mr. A. M. V. Arbogast.

Messrs. Frank Houchin of this place, and G. B. Slaven and J. A. Varner of Gillespie, went to court last week in a boat, a distance of 50 miles.

Messrs. Granville and Caswell Keller have purchased the farm known as the Jacob Shalts farm 3 miles south of Gillespie, for $432.

Miss Pearl Yeager is visiting friends at Green Bank this week.

Mr. Ed Wallace of Williamsville was the guest of his friend and school mate Mr. E. F. Barner last Monday night.

Mr. L. Dysard made a flying trip to Beverly last week.

Our new preachers haven't arrived here yet. Rev. Maxwell will take charge of the Green Bank circuit.

Miss Bessie Dysard who has been visiting friends here for several weeks returned to her home at Driftwood today.

Messrs. C. W. and G. B. Slaven of Gillespie have sold their farms to B. M. Yeager, of Huntersville.

Mr. Peter Gum, of Meadow Dale was at Mr. Uriah Hevener's recently.

Mr. C. M. Keller sometime ago shot at some blackbirds, missed the birds and killed one of his fine dogs, that is the way it goes, handling Winchester rifles carelessly.

Messrs. Arbogast and Slaven Tanners of Monterey were in this neighborhood hunting work, such as roofing and spouting houses, but they may call it that but we call it a courting trip, what says you boys?

Peter Kramar, Ham Collin's pard, has left the country, and we are not any ways sorry of his departure.

Keep your eye on the He—J.

Our Sister Village.

McDOWELL, Va., April 17 1895.—Rev. Totten, the Methodist pastor, delivered a very able sermon Sunday. All were very much pleased with his discourse. We trust that his stay among us will be both pleasant and profitable, and that he may be the means of leading many souls to Christ.

Misses Minnie Bradshaw and Flossie McElwe and Orren Bradshaw returned Friday from visiting friends in Pocahontas and Randolph counties. They attended Mr. Frank McElwe's wedding in Pocahontas, and the reception which took place at his home in Randolph. The young ladies report having a nice time.

Miss Dona Garichoff accompanied Rev. Dabbs to Williamsville last Friday.

The Normal School at this place, conducted by Prof. B. H. Hansel is increasing in numbers. Miss Annie Bucher of Bridgewater, Va., and C. P. Hicklin of New Salem neighborhood, entered this week.

Master Mack Gwin is becoming very much attached to McDowell.

Miss Lucy Wallace of Williamsville, is the guest of Miss Lena Bull.

Mr. John J. Hiner has moved his saw mill to Mr. Len Hook's.

Last week John R. Rexrode and his boys and Bee Williams started to W. Va. to seek employment in the lumber camps.

Mr. Robert Ervine is erecting a new house near the top of Bald Pasture mountain.

Mr. David Bratton and wife of Polar spent Tuesday night at the "Mansion House."

Several candidates have been canvassing this section during the past week. They seem to understand the old adage, that "there is no excellence without great labor," hence the most of them seem to be working earnestly.
